

Beyond concentration is loss of local access to the physical station. Also lost are valuable members of the community such as local owners and managers, program managers, news people. These were often important people in the community and they participated in many public spirited efforts. We have lost many already, let's not lose more.

Alan MacIntyre

Yes, I was in broadcasting, as an engineer, but enjoyed the friendship of owners and managers for many years.